

Originally on home page

Places of Interest Locally

Abbotts Hall Farm

This is now the HQ of the Essex Wildlife Trust, it is a working farm where Essex Wildlife Trust is aiming to show how wildlife can flourish alongside profitable farming. Find out more on the Essex Wildlife Trust website.

Copt Hall Marshes

This National Trust managed property on the remote and beautiful Blackwater Estuary is a noted site for overwintering birds, and can be viewed from a waymarked circular route. Find out more on the National Trust website.

Peldon Rose

A 15th Century Inn still serving the local community and diners from far & near after 500 years. Find out more at <http://www.thepeldonrose.com>.